

From J. Burdett. 26.50 Millwood, Tuscarora Co

My Dear Friend;

Ohio.

137

Mr Valent said he would send me the two vols of Theodore Parkers sermons & speeches to Joseph Potts, Shipowner, Sunderland, England, if I desired it. Will you tell him, that if he will send the books in the Felix parcel, I shall be much obliged, and will pay for them the first opportunity.

Henry C. Wright has just read his account of the Communications received from what professed to be the spirit of his brother Chester.
It is hardly necessary, perhaps, for me to state, that the account he has sent you is strictly correct.

We have had a very pleasant time of late, and Henry seems to have enjoyed himself as much as any of us. Our children are busy with their studies.

They have got a most excellent teacher, who visits them at their own home. It is Theodore Sulist, the friend and relation of R. D. Webb. I cannot tell you how pleasant we find it to have a few intelligent and superior minds about us.

Success to your Bazaar. I should be so glad to be with you. I hope to be able to make a present to the Bazaar next year.

I shall send you the cloth as soon as I can find an opportunity to send it free of expense.

We shall be glad to hear from you an Mrs Garrison. We hope you are all well. We still ~~are~~ enjoy good health.

You would hear of our Convention, I suppose. We had crowded meetings, and the influence seems all in favour of liberal views. We had a many excellent spirits there. The opposition was just what we should have wished. It just seemed to bring out more fully the truth, and to ~~keep~~ awake the public mind.

My wife and children join with me in love to you and family. With best wishes for your health and happiness,

I am yours very affly & deeply,
Joseph Barker

N. B. The antislavery cause is making its way hereabouts.

The negro haters and slavery defenders are becoming less important and less insolent. The friends of freedom and humanity are becoming bolder. I wish we had more ^{good} lecturers at work.
A few good speakers would be exceedingly useful in these parts.
